A New Hero Is Born

Chapter 1

Here's my day so far, went to jail then lost the man of my dreams, and got my butt kicked very good, still things could be a lot worse. Oh that's right, I'm being chased by a scientist who experimented on me and wants to use my villain friends, to turn into slaves and kill me. Guess they can't. How did all come to this you ask? My end starts at the beginning, the very beginning. (Scene Changes to World War 2. Bombs blasting everywhere, buildings in flames, people screaming for their lives , and a small family running for their lives, carrying a baby.) A man in his 32s wearing a white tank top , blue jeans , skin as cream white , like a vanilla cake. He has a beard and a look of determination and fear on his face. Running beside him, was a woman... his wife. The woman has white creamed skin like her husband and is wearing a green shirt with blue jeans. She has a look of fear on her face while thinking, * She has to survive, she's the one that will protect us all, even planet earth. She has to.* Just as my family and I were almost out of the battle zone, a sonic blast bounces off the earth's atmosphere and knocks my family to the ground. Just then a eerie evil laugh surfaces "MWAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!" the voice belong to a robot and a scientist. My mother looked up in shock, as the scientist walked up toward my mother and father and said with a sweet voice, " Don't worry we will take good care of your daughter." The scientist smiled sweetly, but turned into a frown when the robot screamed impatiently, " JEB BATCHELDER! Hurry up! Optimist Prime will be here any minute and cybertron is waiting to kill this fleshly human baby!". Jeb Batchelder smiled evilly at my mom, as she looked at Jeb in horror. Jeb snatched the baby out of my mother's hands, and the robot took out a white cloth with white powder on it, and grabbed the two humans with his metal hands and put the cloth on their faces, while grinning evilly. I cried in Jeb Batchelder's arms, as I witness my parents struggling and trying to breath fresh air. This lasted for 3mins till my parents went limb, I cried so hard that the scientist slapped me across the face, telling me to shut up. I giggled as I saw my savior behind them, another robot I knew so well. Jeb Batchelder and the anonymous robot turned around slowly to the robot who tried to stop them. Both of them have feared faces. Standing before them was Optimus Prime, Leader of the Auto-bots. Jeb and the anonymous robot walked slowly backwards, toward the gate to exit California. Jeb says as he shakes wildly "W...what do you w...www...want?" "What I want is that baby. Let her go Megatron!" Optimus Prime said as he advances toward Jeb and Megatron slowly. The other robots name who's Megatron, smiled evilly toward Optimus, as he turn toward Jeb Batchelder and said "You know what to do with the human" Jeb smiles evilly at Megatron, and he turns and runs for the gate. Optimus Prime runs toward Jeb Batchelder, to stop him but, fails when Megatron appears in a burst of dark magic and pointing his gun at Optimus Prime's chest, and yells back at Jeb screaming "Don't worry I'll take care of Optimus. You run toward your puny little science lair and experiment on the little insect!" Jeb stops running and turns toward Megatron and smiles evilly. Jeb reaches the golden gate , grabs the handle and opens it and runs toward his lair. Meanwhile Optimus Prime and Megatron fights. Sparks of metal clashing each other. Optimus Prime does a 360 Karate move. Before he could finish his move Megatron summons a dark majestic dragon. The dragon appears behind Optimus and shoots purple flames toward the ground. At that very moment the ground shook as hard as thunder. Then all of a sudden the flames appeared swirling around Optimus till it creates a chain of dark magic. Optimus tries to free himself from the chains but it wouldn't budge. Megatron walks toward Optimus with an evil smile plastered on his face and said "Aww is the great Optimus Prime the Leader of the Autobots oops I meant to say auto-dorks can't free himself from my extraordinary magic? What a pity!" Megatron walks away from Optimus and transforms into a cybertronian aircraft. He was about to take off when he said "That human will make one cybertronian cycle of a villain and one of the very best. I already have the perfect villain name for her Black Widow Villainous of Planet Earth. You and your pitiful humans have to start praying for your miserable lives because Planet Earth is going to die in oh let's say in 10 years see yeah Optimus Dork" And with that he flew off to cybertron with his dragon leaving Optimus Prime tangled in chains.

2. Chapter 2

*Chapter 2 *At 2000 miles away from the battle zone lies a laboratory. A white van pulls up in front of the laboratory. The scientist hops off the van and walks toward the double doors carrying an infant child. I was whimpering in the scientist arms while sleeping. Jeb slaps me to stop whimpering. I obey and stayed quiet while Jeb walks through the double doors, down a hallway, and up a flight of stairs till we reach a white door labeled lab. My eyes went wide and I started whimpering in fear while Jeb look down at me and smiled. Jeb push open the door and walked in the room. The room had various of scientific items like an experiment table, scissors, knives cages, fluids, syringe etc. Jeb laid me on the experiment table and turn around to call in more scientist's. Few minutes of waiting and 5 scientist came into the room well 6 counting Jeb. They surround the table which I was contained in and picked up knives , syringe and laid them in the table. They grabbed goggles and put them around their eyes. I turned to Jeb with a fearful expression on my tiny face his face soften but I look into his eyes and I see evil in them. He rubs my head passionately. I answer to him by biting his hand hard he screamed "AHHHHHHHH". His hand has a red teeth mark in which I bit him. I giggled at him and the other scientist which they have hatred expressions on them. One of them lifted a small knife into the air just above me. I look at it in horror as I closed my eyes waiting for the end then darkness consumes me.

A few hours later I woke up laying on a cold hard floor. My vision was blurry I got up on my tiny legs and walked toward the bars. Wait bars? My eyes shot wide open. My vision clearing in less than a minute and I realized that I wasn't in the lab I was in a cage. I walked toward the bars of the cage and realized it was open. I pushed open the door and got out then I felt something different about myself I touch every single part of my body till I bent down and felt something on my back moving I turned slightly to see my back and what I saw shocks me on my back I saw a pair of wings but not like those horror monster like wings you see in movies these wings are pretty more than pretty their beautiful. The wings are sweet creamy white with brownish feathers in them like a hawks wings but below the brown is white. It's the most beautiful wings I've ever seen so gracefully soft but something about them makes them powerful. I was about to try them out when I heard a squeaky noise coming from the the door in front of me I ran toward cage I was about to enter till I heard a gentle voice called my name "Jennifer is that you sweetie?" I got out a blood covered knife don't ask me where I got it and got ready to attack the scientist who experimented on me. The person who said my name came out of the shadows. This man was not any of the scientists who experimented on me. This man has chocolate creamy skin he wears a lab coat and white pants, he has brown eyes a black beard and he carries gold keys in his left hand. He stops and looks at me and smiles for a moment I thought he was an enemy but he didn't look like one. The man kneels in front of me and said "My name is Dr. Cameron McCarthy I 'am here to help you learn how to fly and escape this evil place". I raised my eyebrow at the last part. He chuckles and said "I know you may not believe young hero but I know your parents ". I scoff at him. He sighs and pulls out a couple of pictures that have me in the hospital bed with my mom holding me beside my mother and me were my father and Dr. Cameron McCarthy. He also showed me a couple of pics when we were in the backyard playing. When he was done showing me the photos he stuffed them in his pocket and rubs my head and gives me a kiss on the cheek. I smiled at him and he smiles back as I walked toward him and cuddle on his chest. He smiles and picks me up and walks toward the middle of the room which has more cages. He puts me down and we started the lesson on learning how to fly. Dr.

McCarthy told me to get on fours and move my shoulder blade upwards and amazingly my wings shot out and wide not to mention beautiful. He chuckles and told me to flap them. I gave him a look saying how the hell I'm supposed to do that. He reads me look and said "Move your shoulder blade up and down 2 times" I did what I was told and I accidentally move them up 3 times and I was shot off the ground at blazing speed I screamed and realized I was heading towards the boiler. I leaned left and then I was flying at a maximum speed and I loved every second of it. I leaned right and I did loopy loops , 360 spin and then I shot downwards and I gracefully landed on the ground in front of Dr. McCarthy. He smiled and he told me I was ready to escape but before I do he told me to follow him toward two cages which contained two humans like me I recognized them immediately and jump for joy and did a fist pump in the air. Dr. McCarthy smiled at me and open the door of the two cages the humans came out. From the first cage came out a lovely looking girl with blond hair and sea blue eyes, white silky skin and she has white creamy wings like mine except without the brownish part and she wore blue shirt with brown jeans. I said in my baby language "Rebecca! Sister I miss you" I hugged her tightly and started crying. She smiles as she hugs me back. Me and Rebecca pulled back from our hug and look at Dr. McCarthy as he open the second door of the second cage and out came out another girl with long brown hair that reaches the ground wears glasses has brown eyes and has caramel like wings. She is my other sister I said in my baby like language again "Nikki I miss you". Me Rebecca and Nikki all hug each other passionately glad that each other was safe and sound. We all pulled away from our hugs and look at Dr. McCarthy with loving eyes as he leads us toward the front yard of the laboratory. We all smiled at the warm loving sun that welcomed us our smiles turn into a frowns when we heard scientist running toward us with guns. We all look at Dr. McCarthy with fearful expressions he told us to run and take off to Florida were our mom and dad are waiting for us. We didn't wanna leave him but we have no choice we took off running leaving Dr. McCarthy to handle the scientist and Jeb Batchelder. Just as when we were about to take off we heard Dr. McCarthy yelling to Jeb "THEN I QUIT! I DON'T WANNA BE PART OF YOUR STICKING LAB. EXPERIMENTING ON POOR HELPLESS CHILDREN TO TURN THEM INTO DISGUSTING FREAKING WOLF LIKE HUMAN BEINGS! I AM GOING TO PROTECT THESE CHILDREN AND TURN THEM INTO PROTECTERS OF PLANET EARTH AND THERES NOTHING YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT!" Jeb answers to him and said "Fine keep them for all I care but mark my words when they turn 15 yrs old I'll be coming for them "And with that he and the other scientist returned inside the laboratory. Dr. McCarthy turns toward us and told us to fly to Florida we hugged him for a few minutes then we all pulled back we have tears in our eyes but we shook them off and got off the ground and flew to Florida. From inside the laboratory unknown to Dr. McCarthy watches Jeb from a window as we took off into the sky into Florida and he smiled evilly and whispers "We will meet again experiment 11 we will meet again" And with that he walk back toward the shadows of the laboratory.

3. Chapter 3

Raven's POV Hello readers my name is Raven I'am the fourth sister of Jennifer , Rebecca and Nikki. They are already free at this moment as you read in the last chapter. I am chain up at the moment with an electric force field and my black wings are chained as well. Just then a scientist came in with his evil smirk plastered on his face. He walked toward me and tilts my head upwards toward a screen and he demonstrates a video showing Jennifer, Rebecca, and Nikki that they already escape the lab. Jeb turns toward me and said "It's your turn to go to the lab tomorrow sweetie". Raven answers him darkly "Sweetie? Sweetie is your fucking ass mother". A scientist came in and puts a hand on my mouth preventing me from saying anything else. Jeb answers me back saying " I hope you are prepared for the laboratory tomorrow". And with that said he left with the other scientist leaving me in the dark as always.

The Next Day I woke up with a bright light against my face and scientist's around me with syringes in their hands. Then one of the scientists got out a blue substance from a bottle with a syringe and he tried to insert it on my arm in that moment I heard a roar from an angry dragon. Everything in the laboratory started falling into the ground because everything was made of glass. The scientist that was holding the syringe falls off of his hand and into my arm.

After that I yanked off the chains that was holding me in place got up and off the experimentation table and ran out of the room and out the building. In that moment my dragon comes and I heard a distinct roars and neighing of two dragons and a horse. I ran back into the building to rescue them. And when I came out suddenly with the two night furies and the unicorn I did a dark spell that sunk the building into the earth's crust. That very moment is when I fell unconscious to the ground. In a few hours later my dragon carries me a place far away from the laboratory. When I woke up 2 hours later found myself surround by the animals that I saved from the laboratory. Just then 3 girls flew down and landed on the island that I was. They came running towards me and their mascots. When I stood up I noticed my reflection in the crystal clear blue waters that something in my eyes changed instead of green eyes now I have red eyes.

4. Chapter 4

Jennifer's POV I was flabbergasted that I saw my 4th sister with red eyes. I knew this was the work of Jeb Batchelder. Rage was starting to build up inside me like a volcano about to erupt. I walk toward Raven while pushing down my rage and sat down on the white sand and faced Raven. She faced away from me refuse to meet my eyes. I know how she feels about being experimented on. She's not the only one. I put my hand on her shoulder and rub it gently she turned her head and face me with tearful eyes. I wiped them away with one swish of my finger and I smiled at her she smiled back. I hugged her and I told her we will have our revenge on that dreadful scientist. She smiled even wider when I said that. Raven picks herself off the ground wipes the sand off her pants and walks toward her dragon and got on. Rebecca , Nikki and I got on our dragons and horse and off we went to Florida.

5. Chapter 5

Chapter 5

A few hours later Raven, Rebecca, Nikki, and Jennifer were flying 2000 feet in the air on their way to Florida. Each of them were still in thought about what they just witnessed in the lab. Nikki was in deep thought about what happen to herself in the lab. Then her eyes flashed black and white as she had a flashback.

~FLASHBACK~

Her mind went back to recent events still stuck in some sort of confusion. Earlier before any escaping managed to happen, she had been strapped to a cold, metal table, sterile white lights blinding her. Her heart raced at the surgeons standing before her, surgical instruments in hand. She tried to yell before noticing an oxygen mask strapped to her, before everything was engulfed in darkness. Hours later, she was back in her cold, metal cage, peering through the bar. Dr. McCarthy was knelt down in front of her cage. "Hey there, don't worry, I'm not going to hurt you like the other did." He says as she backed up a little. He then has a sudden look of sympathy and shock, he seem to be staring into her eyes. He pulled out a mirror from his lab coat, letting her have a look. Her eyes. They were noticeable if you managed to take a closer glance at her eyes, or even just a glance at her in general. She stared in silence. "I'm so sorry. " the scientist whispered with a look of sympathy. Tears started to fall from her modified eyes as she hugged her knees close to her. The little girl sobbed, not caring if her blue/black glasses got wet and foggy. "There's also something else you need to know.." She looks back, not noticing anything else. " Here , come closer." Hesitating at first, she inched towards the bars as he gave her the mirror. There was two slits cut into her leather grey shirt , revealing golden-like-wings. She started to cry quietly again. "I know, I know. And I'm not just saying this. I will help you out of here."

~FLASHBACK ENDED~

REALITY

Nikki's flashback ended, and so did he flashing black and white eyes, shaking her head as she flew. She stayed quiet for most of the ride, stuck in her thoughts.

After 24 long hours of flying from California they finally reached Florida. They landed and stop their dragons and horse in a small city called Pembroke Pines. Then Jennifer has the address to where they lived they descended from where they are and walked towards the landings and into a small barn next to an abandoned observatory. As they walked in they were greeted by warm hugs and tears of two humans which they recognized so well. Everyone except Nikki said in their baby like voices "MOMMY! DADDY! WE MISSED YOU! " We hugged them and cried so much that we all fell instantly asleep and that's when Mr. and Mrs. Transformer toke us all upstairs and put us all into bed. Nikki wasn't greeted by anyone she recognized. She didn't see her mom, or her oldest brother anywhere, no matter how hard she looked for them around the place. As the door closed and they were all tucked in, Nikki snuck out and gazing at the stars as tears fell. She didn't make a sound. She eventually fell asleep as she grew tired on the couch. At 3:30 am in the next morning the door to the kids bedroom creaked open. The figures came toward Nikki and nudged her awake. The figures were Mr. and Mrs. Transformer. Mrs. Transformer said quietly careful not to wake up the other children " Nikki can we talk to you privately down stairs?" Nikki sleepily opened her eyes halfway and nodded. She followed them downstairs quietly as she got off the couch. As the three of them made it downstairs and sat on the couch in the living room. Mr. and Mrs. Transformer told Nikki about her past and her parent's death from Jeb Batchelder and asked her to be their daughter. Nikki didn't dare cry this time, she just started at the table quietly with solemn eyes. She didn't know what she wanted to do about it at this part. She simply nodded, not knowing what else to do. Mrs. Transformer looks at her softly knowing what she is feeling and rubbed her head passionately and took her up stairs through the door and onto the couch Nikki was sleeping in. Mr. and Mrs. Transformer kissed her head and headed toward the door locking it from the other side. For the first time in years Nikki was smiling. She certainly did have a small smile as she slept soundly, curling up with the blanket on the couch, thinking about the stars again in her dreams.

6. Chapter 6

*Chapter 6 ****

7 years later all the transformer kids are all grown up. Jennifer , Rebecca , Nikki and Raven all have turned into beautiful young ladies. Jennifer wears a majestic powerful gold armor with sword , guns and a magical wand. Rebecca wears the same but in green . Nikki's outfit was a maroon button-down shirt with folded three quarter sleeves, and a pair of black dress pants with thin vertical white lines along with her blue jacket patterned with tiny constellations and stars. She carried a messenger bag on her right shoulder, containing her MacBook Air and other technological inventions. She always wore her USB port necklace with her, it was a special piece only she could access. Raven is different she wears tight leather and dark majestic powers surround her in a mist. They were all getting ready for their day of heroics till their mother called saying something horrible "Kids time to go to School!" All the kids screamed "SCHOOL!" Nikki groaned at the mention of school. "Do we really have to? " she asked, wanting to stay home instead of going somewhere foreign to her. " Yes you do. Come on now." Mom said as she lead the kids into her car and pulled from her drive way and drove all the way to a school that's next to prison. The school was titled Lil Gifted School for lil gifted kid. The transformer kids got out of the car and headed inside the school. They turned around and saw their mother waving bye at them. They waved back and they turned and faced a room full of kids ages 8-12. And one of them was singing. This boy has milk chocolate skin, a top hat with a skull and some purple voodoo and a purple vest plus a purple jacket and a live shadow. No seriously it was alive. Me and My sisters all stare in shock with our mouths wide open as we listened to this kid sing.(Music Cue: Friends on the Other Side)

Nikki stood beside her sisters, her eyes keeping focus on the strange boy with his strange song. "What's he singing about?" she asked Jennifer. "Voodoo it's a majestic powers of dark that connects with the dead souls and all things in hell" Jennifer answered. "Huh." Nikki says with a shrug, a pokerfaced look as the boy continued to sing. "We should probably get to class before we're late." She suggests, walking away from the voodoo boy. Jennifer, Rebecca, and Raven, follow her towards around table. Then all of a sudden black smoke appear out of nowhere in front of them and reveal to be a boy in a black toga, with a skull pendant, grey/bluish skin, flaming blue hair, yellow eyes, and shark like teeth. He smiled and said to us "Name is Hades Lord of the Dead. Hi how are you doing?" Hades asked as he struck out a greyish hand in front of us. Nikki look at the boy standing before them, deciding she had the most strangest days possible. She waved at him "Hey" with a small smile. "Hey nice to meet you. If you girls want a place to sit you can sit with us" Nikki was about to respond when a superpower boy pushed him to the ground saying "Stay down freaking disgusting kid ugh" "Why did you do that? He was just trying to be nice." Nikki says with another shrug as she helped the flaming boy up. "Nice him ha sorry girly but he goes to prison along with these other freaks." The super power boy gestured toward a boy with a twisted looking beard, a lion cub, three hyenas, a girl with a horn head and green skin, a rat looking boy, a boy with the top hat that was singing earlier and so on. "Don't call me that." She says in a dull tone. "Come on, let's just find seats somewhere." She says to her sisters, walking past the boy. The transformer kids sat where the so called "Freaks" are sitting. Jennifer introduced herself first. "Hi my name is Jennifer soon to be queen of planet earth" the one with the twisted beard spoke up first "My name is Jafar the world's most powerful sorcerer in the world" Hades came in behind him and said "ohh world's most powerful sorcerer, mommy hold my hand I'm scared humph hehe" The transformer and the villains all giggled while Jafar just scoff. Nikki laughed along with them, but in a light, joking way. "Name's Nikki Future Protector of the Stars." She says with a clam smile. "What does that title mean darling?" the top boy with skull hat asked. "It means I'm the one keeping the stars and galaxies safe." She replies with a casual shrug. "Wow so you're like a goddess" the blue alien that he transformers didn't even saw asked. But as the boy asked his attention went to Jennifer. "Heh, I don't know, maybe." She says with a smile. The blue alien smiled at her and whispers to himself " That Jennifer girl is so pretty who can blame her she might fall for Wayne and I will always be in the middle." The blue alien hangs his head low sadly. Nikki noticed the boy's actions, and nudged Jennifer with her elbow lightly. " Hey , why don't you go cheer him up? He seems to like you." She whispers with a small smile to her sister who stood next to her. Jennifer looks at the boy with curious eyes not scared that he's and alien but curious and somewhat attractive to him. Jennifer blushed red while looking at the alien boy. Nikki smiled to herself and continued to talk with the others as she let Jennifer talk to the blue boy. Jennifer walked toward the blue alien and sat next to him and said " Hi what's your name?" The blue boy turned around and when he did Jennifer looked into his eyes and realized they were emerald they were the brightest emerald green eyes they ever seen she was so entranced by them. The blue boy looked into her eyes and saw they were brown it's the most beautiful brown eyes he had ever seen. They both realized they were staring at each other's eyes they both blushed. The blue boy answered her question " the name that my parents gave me after the destruction of my planet is SYX but here on earth it's MEGAMIND" Jennifer giggled and said sweetly "SYX I like that it suits you" SYX and Jennifer blushed together but Syx's blush was a purplish pinkish blush. Jennifer found that blush adorable that she laugh. Jennifer and SYX spent that whole afternoon together after SYX introduced her and her family to the rest of the villains. Jennifer and her family are starting to think this might be a very nice beginning for all of them.

7. Chapter 7

Chapter 7

It's been 4 years since the transformer kids entered a happy life in metro city Florida they got to meet villains, Nikki the transformer punch the super power boy who keeps bullying the villains and boy did I enjoy every second of it. So now the kids are all 15 years old getting ready for high school hoping to see their villains friends there.

Jennifer and rest of the transformer kids are all sound asleep when the creaked open and came in two night furies a deadly nadder and a horse came on top of their owners and started licking and roaring them awake. Raven screamed "ahhhhhhhh" and she fell off the bed.

Nikki woke up instantly as Gizmo licked her repeatedly, a bit startled but happy. Gizmo was probably the closet member of family she felt she had, next to her dead parents and older brothers. She hugged the blue-eyed night fury, and got up to do a quick lookover on his right tail fin. It had been damaged during the escape from the laboratory, so she took it upon herself to make it out of leather and computer-based parts. A glowing blue logo of a USB port showed on the leathery covering of the hand crafted tail, showing that his tail needed no work done at the moment.

Jennifer felt a slimy substance on her face as she woke up and realized it was Saphira sitting on her bed and doing that puppy dog expression as saying 'feed and pet me'. So Jennifer did that and did an overlook on her dragons tale and realized that the lightning and all the four elements on saphira's tail is wearing off so Jennifer got off from her bed walked over to the closet and picked out night fury food, deadly nadder food, and hay for the horse. And got out two nightfury bowls and filled it with fish and nibble for her dragon and gave it to Saphira and when Saphira eat it her tail started glowing a blue arua around the tail meaning it is healthy. Jennifer smiled and look at gizmo Nikki's dragon as Nikki went to get the food for her dragon.

Nikki moved Gizmo's bowl on the floor in front of him as he got off her bed and ate. She sat next to him, stroking his tail as he scarfed down his bowl of fish. Jennifer and Nikki dragons as the size of two drawers. People might say dragons are fearsome creatures but once you get to know them their really not that scary. Raven Deadly Nadder is the same size as Jennifer's and Nikki's dragon as for Rebecca horse she the size of three drawers. The transformer kids love their pets so much that the principal of metro high allow dragons on the school grounds.

Jennifer went to the closet to change when she was out of the closet 5mins later she is dressed in her usual outfit but this time it has black sleeves and black leggings with the dragon strike class symbol in front of the gold armor. She asked "are you guys ready to go to metro high ?"

Nikki rubbed her eyes sleepily, and checked her watch for the time. "No." She muttered tiredly. She knew how school was important to life, but she just hated the process of the education system itself, thinking it as stupid. Nikki put on her usual clothes, button-down maroon shirt, black dress pants, black dress boots with silver buckles on the side, and her constellation jacket. Her jacket looked more like a midnight sky than when she was younger, stars seeming to glow a little against the dark blue. She grabbed her messenger bag from her desk, which now had 4 dragon classes embroidered on the blue-gray material: Strike, Stoker, Fear, and the Mystery class, all in their representative colors.

"Ok then let's go"Jennifer said as the transformer family walked out of the barn got on their dragons descended up in the sky and landed 10 feet away from the school labeled Metro High. Jennifer turned toward her fellow sisters and said "well here it is you Guys ready for this?"

"Nope!" Nikki says, but grins afterwards. "Just kidding, let's get this over with."

"Oh Nikki hahaha" Jennifer laughs at Nikki joking about not going into school. "Jennifer look their's a lion and it's coming towards us! " Raven said screaming and pointing toward the direction of the schools front double doors as a lion busts through it and came running towards them.

"Wait look, it's Scar!" Nikki points out optimistically as the lion jumped on them.

"Ahh get this lion off of m...wait scar you said? Rebecca said as she looks at the lion more closely and smiles. Scar/Taka smiles back at them and licks their faces everyone was giggling except jennifer who said "Great first dragon slobber then lion slobber what's next my own grandmother "

Nikki laughed along with the others, scratching Scar behind the ears. "nice to see you back here." She says with a kind smile.

"Yep it's good to be here single villain is in metro high if your wondering. Even megamind" Scar said as he raises an eyebrow with a smirk while looking at Jennifer who is blushing furiously.

Nikki casts a smirk towards Jennifer as she spots her sister blushing madly.

"Stop smirking your making me nervous I was kinda thinking of asking out megamind to prom. And if you don't megaminds gonna know that I have a crush on him humph! Jennifer said screaming playfully while turning and blushing red.

"Eheheh, just messing with you. Besides he likes you back anyways, nothing to worry about." Nikki says with a casual smile.

"Yeah wait what?!" Jennifer turned toward Nikki with a shock expression.

"Yep, he likes you. Can't tell by the way he blushes and looks at you?" Nikki says as she looks over at Jennifer.

Jennifer blushes furiously and walks inside the school.

Nikki just laughs to herself and follows her, walking alongside Scar.

"I heard that Nikki. So Rebecca any love interest hmm in metro high school " jennifer said as Nikki , scar, yenia and all of them where walking to first class math.

"Yes I do" Rebecca said day dreaming.

Scar the lion walked up to Rebecca and said" ohhh do tell" Scar smirks at Rebecca.

"'Yes I'm totally in love with you' that what I would say"Rebecca said blushing

"Hehe nice oh look here comes our class room" scar said as they walk in and saw every villain from their elementary school the villain were shocked that their friends from lil gifted school was here in metro high. "Oh you must be the new students the transformer family correct?" Mr. Coswell asked

"yeah." Nikki replies for her sisters.

"Thank mrs Nikki you can sit where Malifacent is sitting" mr. coswell said.

She nods and takes her seat, setting down her messenger bag next to her.

"Mrs Rebecca you can sit next to mother gothel"

"Ok thanks "Rebecca said as she walks over to Mother Gothel and sits down next to her.

"Mrs. Raven you can sit next to hades"

"Ok I've always liked him as a friend" Raven said proudly as she sits next to hades in the back row.

"And as for you Mrs Jennifer you can sit next to megamind" There was a chorus of oooooooooos in the class room coming from the villains. Jennifer blushes slightly and murmurs a thanks to the teacher and sat down next to megamind.

Nikki smirked and joined the chorus.

"Nikki!" Jennifer screamed at her while blushing very hard. The class snickered. Jennifer gave the class a playful death glare.

Nikki flashed her sister a mischievous grin, teasing her.

"Don't try to hide it babe we all know you like him". Hades said to the left side and at the back of the room.

"Eheheh, this should be a fun class." Nikki laughs to herself, already enjoying it. Although she did keep her guard up, the teacher seemed to be a little strict.

"Haha alright class settled down will disgust megamind and jennifer future together later heck we might even have a pop quiz on them hehe." Mr. Coswell laughs silently as he begins to write the work on the board . "Ugh why is my life with megamind a living hell of a laugh stock" jennifer saids playfully. "Try it my style bade all hell all the time" Hades said as he write the work from the board while smirking at Jennifer.

"haha, nice." Nikki says to Hades at his comment, multitasking as she wrote down the notes from the board.

1 hour later in class the bell ring and the villains plus the transformer family all went to their next class science. Jennifer and Megamind loved science so much that they take their inventions over the top. Jennifer and megamind toke their usual seats like they did in math class and waited for the teacher to arrive. Meanwhile every villain plus the transformer family smirks at jennifer and megamind together and walk to sit down wherever they want to sit.

Science was also one of Nikki's favorite classes. She especially liked the experiments with electric circuits, finding them fun to build. She then took a seat next to Hades and Dr. Facilier, waiting along with the rest of the class.

"So what do you think of those two Nikki " Dr. Facilier asked

"classic lovebirds I tell you." She replies with a smirk.

"I know right and jennifer is acting like she doesn't ...oh shit their gonna kiss" Hades exclaimed as jennifer and megamind were inches apart from kissing everyone is watching waiting for the moment. Just as they were about to kiss the bell rang which started 2nd period. Megamind And Jennifer open their eyes quickly and pulled apart blushing they both turned to the front of the class acting like nothing happen. "Man they were so close" Dr. Facilier pouted.

"heh, yeah, they're like magnets to each other." Nikki says as she leaves with the rest of the class to the next one.

The next class is a certain race in Mexico. It took metro high 12 days but they finally made it to Mexico. "Well looks like our class is here in Mexico its extraordinary right guys? " jennifer asked

"eh, I could imagine better." Nikki comments.

"Ok class are you ready for the race of your lives" the class screamed yeah! "Ok then who ever wins gets a free pizza party/ 24 tickets to the Bon Jovi concert. Ok ready set go!" The class sprinted across the field it's a 50mile race without stopping and without using their powers. The villains sprinted as fast as they can Scar ran past Shere Khan and was in the lead. Hades and Dr. Facilier were tied in their running. The rest of the villains were tied. The transformers family were half way to the finish line till they saw jennifer running faster than every one else and finish the race all by herself but the camera saw that both the transformer family and the villains won together. But the villains didn't saw that. They were mad that jennifer won that race or they thought she did. Neither team notice a figure in the office way up in the clouds look at the race then at the trophy beside him next to the desk. "Ah poor villains when they found out that jennifer made them lose the race they will be all mad and their gonna kill her. Jennifer may not know it yet but her villain friends are going to be locked away in the kingdom or should I say disney kingdom and they won't know it's me that made them lose the race hahahahahahahah" the figure puts a peice of pamphlet onto the trophy making it look like jennifer won the race. Meanwhile the teacher announces the winner "and the winner is oh wow and she didn't even use her magic lets give a big round of applause to jennifer protector of planet earth " the whole school clapped for jennifer even the transformer family but the villains weren't happy so hades screamed "jennifer you made us all lose the race we thought you were a team with us but now looks like you not if we ever see you as an aldult again will kill you!" The villains flew off but they heard what jennifer said "ok then say goodbye to your future nieces and nephews ! " Jennifer flew away along with her transformer family back to the barn leaving the villains mesmerized.

Nikki had sprinted as fast as she could, taking neither side. She didn't really care about the race, athletics weren't her strong suit, and never really were. During the ride back to the barn however, she stayed silent, wondering how Jennifer had won. She knew her sister all too well, and knows she would have used her powers if she could, but didn't? Someone must have cheated, or made the villains think she won. She continued to ponder on this as she rode with Gizmo through the skies.

3 hours later jennifer burst through the door of the barn and went upstairs crying her mother cried jennifer name" jennifer sweetly what happen at school. Nikki what happen is jennifer ok?"

Nikki was lounging at the couch, her arms crossed over her chest, still thinking about the race. "We raced against our villain friends in Mexico, and Jennifer won. Villains got all upset and threatened her and all of us." She replies solemnly, staring out at the window that showed the night sky.

"I need more details than that what happen during the race" jennifer mother asked curiously

"Everyone was doing their best, although I did notice someone watching above. I think he was the one who had the trophy. It's either he put a fake label with Jennifer's name, or something else I don't know about yet."

"No magic or powers were allowed either."

", but none of us used them." ^

"Did you see who the person was that was watching you guys?" Jennifer mother asked

"No. The windows were tinted well enough for someone to think it was a dark empty room."

"Sounds like someplace jeb batchelder would be in" jennifer mother suggested

Nikki didn't reply to this, staying quiet in thought.

"But I do know where the villains are going to hide though" jennifer mother said

"where?" Nikki asked

"This disk I have here I no ordianry disk" jennifer mother hold up a disney disk "this disk takes to the real world of disney the actual thing not like the disney parks here in Florida but the real thing where the movie characters came to be alive cars talking bugs you know Walt disney stuff"

Nikki looked back and stared at the gleaming disk, mesmerized for a moment. "Makes sense."

"You and jennifer and your sisters plus your myjestic pets will have to go inside real disney to get your villain friends back explain to them that they belong in the real world not in the world they were born in. You kids will go when you are 20yrs old I'll tell you when you are ready ok? Jennifer mother said

"Ok." Nikki says as she gets up from the couch. "Gonna go get some work done. In the meanwhile I suggest talking to her." She says to Jennifer's mother as she goes upstairs to her room.

"Good luck Nikki sweetheart" jennifer mother said lovely

She stopped midway up the stairs for a moment. "Thanks." She says with a calm smile, retreating back upstairs after a few minutes.

Jennifer was quietly crying in bed as the door creaked open and in came Nikki. "What's up Nikki?" Jennifer forced a smile a sad smile.

"Not much, hope you don't mind me up here, came to get some work done." Nikki says with a casual, laid-back smile. "You alright?"

"Yeah just trying to get that memory out of my mind when hades and the villains well you know" jennifer said as she whimpered. Saphira came in and onto bed and nudged jennifer as if hugging her trying to make her feel better.

"yeah, I know. Why don't you get some rest with Saphira? Take your mind off of things." She says as she sits at her own desk, taking her Mackbook Air out from her messenger bag, starting it up.

"Yeah that's what a need (yawns) Nikki will I ever see them again?" jennifer asked sleepily as saphira curled up beside her owner.

"I think you will. By that time things should be better." She replies. One of her many abilities was to predict any upcoming important events that would play a crucial role in the future. It was part of her title as Protector of the Stars. "Get some rest. I'll see you tomorrow." Nikki says to Jennifer with a kind smile.

Jennifer fell asleep waiting till she see her friends again

Nikki then spent the whole night, coding and hacking into profiles and databases. Her job as a hacker was only to use any information she found for good, or to stop any bad activity going on. She had also been talking to her oldest brother (well his ghost). Being able to talk to her deceased family was another one of her abilities, but only at certain times were they available to chat with. No one knew this about her, as there was so much to learn about her. She spoke quietly so she wouldn't wake anyone else that came in. After a long while of talking with him, he disappeared back into the spirit realm and left herself to continue working.

Then after 4 long hours of working on the computer Nikki stood up changed into her pajamas and went to bed with the rest of the transformer family. Little did they know their lives are gonna change forever when they find their villains friends in the real disney world.

She had originally fallen asleep at her desk, but someone came back to wake her up. She fell asleep instantly the minute she laid down.

8. Chapter 8

Chapter 8

It's been 10years here in metro city Florida and the girls have grown so much all of them are 21years old now and they are getting ready to enter the real disney world to bring their villain friends back. When the villain where in disney, Walt wanted these villains to be villains of first we were shocked when we saw disney aladdin villain is jafar, disney hercules villain is hades , the lion king villain is scar and so on. Jennifer was crying so much that she thought that the disney villains which is their friends here in the real world actually loved being disney villains. Well that gonna change. The transformer family were having breakfast and getting ready for their journey in the disney world. Jennifer was eating pancakes with sausage and French toast. "Hmmm nothing is better than Canadian food yummm" jennifer exclaimed heartily.

"yeah, not that bad." Nikki agreed, adding bacon to her plate as she drank from her cup of coffee.

"Ok you kids ready to go to real disney world" Jennifer's mother asked

"might as well get it done while we can." Nikki replies, finishing up her coffee and cleaning her plate.

The transformer kids washes their plates then their mother said "ok meet me in the leaving room that where we will be leaving from" the transformers look at their mom in confusion.

"Come on" their mother beckoned them to sit on the couch. "Uh mom we need to go to real disney world not watch a movie of disney" jennifer says confusingly as she and her sisters sat on the couch. Then their mother stood up gave them the remote and the disk and went upstairs. From up stairs she said "bye have a nice trip". Rebecca looks at everyone while saying "is this suppose to be a joke?" "I don't know ill just put the disk in the DVD player" jennifer said as she stood up walked over to the DVD player and insterted the DVD in and went back and sat on the couch waiting waiting and waiting till something happened.

"JENNIFER!" Raven yelled . Jennifer jumped."What?! What happened?" Jennifer pointed at the T.V. "The T.V.'s doing something funny." Flashing across the screen was a message. Hello there! "Um hi " jennifer said suspiciously. The message changed. Are you ready for an adventure? A signal appear in the T.V. It told you to press ENTER on the remote. Rebecca sighed and did as she was told. Suddenly, the T.V. went black. "Hey!" Jennifer cried as Rebecca slapped the remote against the couch," What's wrong with this thing?" "Ok why isn't the T.V working" Nikki asked. Jennifer answered impatiently "I don't know why it's isn't working" Raven heard a voice coming from the T.V. "Guys why is the tv talking" Rebecca scoff "T.V.s don't talk" Jennifer and Nikki turned toward the tv and heard a strange crackly voice was coming from the T.V. "We all come to this happy place... Welcome!" Then all of a sudden the whole room started shaking then the tv was sucking everything in it. The transformer family got off the couch they took up in the air with their wings but once they shot up the T.V suck the transformer family in the tv and a golden mist surround the room turning everything back to normal. Then the portal in the T.V closesd and then everything went blank.

The transformer family woke up they have no idea where they are but they did saw people sleeping at the , and Hercules, were fast asleep. Prometheus was sleeping on his back, snoring; while hercules was laying flat on the ground sleeping. As they were fast asleep, the sun was coming up from the sky. Not only that, but Apollo was there with his solar chariot.

Apollo saw the two falling asleep, and recognized Prometheus. He turned his chariot, and flew towards Hercules and Prometheus. The transformer family watched in amazement.

They were watching for 20 mins when they saw Hades. Hades appeared behind Hercules and Prometheus with a large smirk on his face, "Bada-bing! Bada-boom!"
>"Hades too?!" Hercules cried in shock. Even the transformer family was shocked as well they decided to reveal themselves to the god and Demi god plus their ex friend Hades.

The transformer family went to where Hades and the rest of the god where they looked down at us with confusion. "Hi my name is Jennifer queen of planet earth, this is my three sisters Raven Nikki and Rebecca we are here in the real Disney world to talk to Hades our ex friend" Zeus answered "of course he's right here" Zeus guestered to the flaming god next to Hera. "Hades do you recognize us" Jennifer asked the flaming god "um no should I" Hades said as an inch of curiosity became stronger between them.

"You don't remember? We all went to school together!" Nikki asks.

"Uh sorry I don't if you have evidence maybe I will ever since I came here I forgot everything about when I was a kid and teenager heck I don't even remember what school I've been to. I really want to remember though" Hades said sadly. The other gods felt pretty bad for Hades even Hercules.

"Wait! Jen remember how we shared music throughout our school years? I can play the songs back from my MacBook Air!" Nikki says excitedly.

"Ok cue on a night to remember from Metro High School" Jennifer said excitedly

"Right on it!" Nikki replies as she pulls out her MacBook Air, starting it up. She then found a music file for "A Night To Remember", a song featured at Metro High.

"Rebecca your turn for the next song" jennifer said. "Ok Nikki can

"Yep." She finds another music file for the song and plays it, along with a Taylor Swift song, "22".

[Jennifer:]

>When you're on your own
Drowning alone
>And you need a rope that can pull you in Someone will throw it

[Megamind:]

>And when you're afraid
That you're gonna break
>And you need a way to feel strong again
Someone will know
it

[Megamind & Jennifer :]

>And even when it hurts the most
Try to have a little hope
>That someone's gonna be there when you don't
When you don't

If you wanna cry, I'll be your shoulder

>If you wanna laugh, I'll be your smile
If you wanna fly, I will be your sky

>Anything you need that's what I'll be
You can come to me

[Jennifer:]

>You struggle inside
Losing your mind
>Fighting and trying to be yourself
When somebody lets you

[Jennifer:]

>Out in the cold
But no where to go
>Feeling like no one could understand Then somebody gets
you

[Megamind & Jennifer:]

>So take a breath and let it go
And try to have a little hope

>'Cause someone's gonna be there when you don't
When you don't

If you wanna cry, I'll be your shoulder

>If you wanna laugh, I'll be your smile
If you wanna fly, I will be your sky

>Anything you need, that's what I'll be
You can come to me

[Jennifer:]

>Like a chain that never breaks
Like a truth that never bends

>Like a glue that takes a broken heart and puts it back again
It's
the feeling that you get

>It's the moment that you know
That no matter what the future holds

>You'll never be alone

[Megamind & Jennifer:]

>If you wanna cry, I'll be your shoulder
If you wanna laugh, I'll be your smile

>If you wanna fly, I will be your sky Anything you need, that's what I'll be

>If you wanna climb, I'll be your ladder
If you wanna run, I'll be your road
>If you want a friend, doesn't matter when Anything you need,
that's what I'll be
>You can come to me

[Jennifer:]

Nikki stares in awe at her sister's singing. "Damn."

"Holy. Shit." Nikki comments as she stops the recording, saving and uploading it to her Mac.

"Hey don't stop it I have one more song comin whoop" jennifer said excitedly

"Haha, alright then." Nikki says as she starts another recording.

>Why do the bad boys always look so good?

La la la la la

That's my heart saying that...

"Ever thought of going on tour?" Nikki asks as she stops the video and uploads it back to her laptop.

"Yeah I have thought about that. But nah I'm not that good." Jennifer says as she pets Saphira.

"Hah, the audience begs to differ. Anyone else want a go before my own?" Nikki asks, seeing if she missed anyone.

"I'm not good at singing in English I always get the words mixed up" Raven says " my voice gets cranky when I sing so no " Rebecca says

"Well, to be honest I'm not a singer. But if you do catch me singing any of my songs, sorry you had to hear that." Nikki says jokingly, going on to iTunes to chose her songs.

"It's alright Nikki I think I have enough evidence" Hades said

"Ok, nevermind then." She says with a shrug. That kind of hurt, but she decides to shrug it off as she closes her laptop, sliding it back into her bag.

"I didn't mean to hurt you what I meant was I have enough evidence to see who you guys are and thanks to you Nikki I finally remember"
"Ahem" Jennifer says ruffly "and you to Jennifer babe"

"It's fine." Nikki replies.

"So do you want me to tell the rest of the villains or are you Guys ok in telling them yourselves" Hades asked

9. Chapter 9

"Of course we gonna tell them ourselves but your coming with us" Jennifer laughed heartily

"Yeah, it'll be fun!" Nikki says, smiling as she shrugged.

"Well alright Babes Ill go. Hey Nikki did anyone told you how pretty you are today?" Hades asked with a toothy smile Swearing to God she hoped she wasn't blushing, she shakes her head.

"No, that's a shocker. thanks for the info Hades." Nikki replies with a slight smile, taken by shock.

>"Your quite Welcome Babe" Hades winked at her still smiling.

Jennifer was shocked but she shook her head and said " Oooo...Ok lets go to the Pride Lands to get Taka aka Scar" "Yay I missed Scar even though he tried to maul me at school 10 Years ago" Rebecca said smiling sheepishly

Nodding, Nikki walked alongside them, although the thought of being unrecognized by the rest of the villains was a bit unsettling. Scar would possibly try to attack them!

A green like portal appear behind the transformer kids and the gods. Jennifer nodded at her comrades and walked into the portal along with Hades. The portal vanished in thin air and off they were going to another world.

LION KING WORLD

From the day we arrive on the blinking, step into the 's more to be seen than can ever be seen. More to do than can ever be done.

>Some say eat or be say live and let all are agreed as they join the stampede. You should never take more than you give.

>In the circle of life, it's the wheel of fortune. It's the leap of faith, it's the band of hope. Till we find our place on the path the circle, the circle of life

>Some of us fall by the wayside. And some of us soar to the some of us sail through our troubles. And some have to live with the scars.

Just in the middle of the song where the rhinos zebras and giraffe where on their way to Pride Rock a Green Portal appear in the middle of the animals. The animals neigh and screech and their eyes where wide when the transformer family appear out of the portal and into the african lands Jennifer inhaled the air and said "Ah so nice and peaceful right Nikki?" The portal vanished into thin air again when the every transformer family and hades steps out of it.

"If you consider the stampedes of animals peaceful, then sure, whatever floats your boat. but yeah, it'll be nice to see Scar and everyone again."

"True and ... Holy Fucking Asshole Guys Look in the grass 5 feet away from us!" Jennifer said screaming and pointed to a pride of lions and 3 hyenas coming towards them white teeth barring and growling at the transformer kids and hades. "WERE DEAD WERE DEAD!" Rebecca said going down to her knees. Hades who was the only one calm rolled his eyes at Rebecca reaction.

Quickly trying to find Scar in the pride of lions standing before them, Nikki soon spotted a tiger's eye that had been slashed long ago. "Scar!"

The said lion lifted his head and started questionably at the human.

Tossing him a scrapbook, Nikki let it land at the lion's paws.

Scar looked at the book suspiciously then back at the human. Slowly he opened the book and looked through each memory. By the time he was finished his eyes were filled with tears. He look up at Nikki with Sad eyes then he spoke in a small but soft whimper "Is it r..really you?"

Nodding she knelt down to be at the same level with him as she gave him a small smile.

Scar whimpered loudly knocked Nikki and Jennifer to the ground and licked them but at the same time he whimpered.

Smiling, Nikki pet their old friend softly in an attempt to comfort him. All the villains had a big heart behind their disguises, and to Nikki, that seemed to matter most.

"It's good to have you back old friend" Hades said to Scar.

"It's good to be back with you guys once again. Hey where are the rest of the villains? Where are they with you guys" Scar said with a raised eyebrow

"No Scar we just came to the kingdom a few moments ago. You and Hades are the only villains we saw so far. We are gonna find the rest today because Jeb Batchelder is in the kingdom looking for you and the rest of the villains to kill you." Jennifer said in a serious tone

"WOAH WOAH WOAH BABE! That Jeb guy is here in the kingdom?" Hades screamed at Jennifer. "Yes he is" Jennifer said. Hades was red eyed his skin turned red and his hair was orange and he screamed "This is just infuriating I just got to blast something! Pain Panic can you come here a minute?" Pain and Panic appeared out of nowhere saluting to their master but that salute was cut short when Hades blasted them with fire and turned them to crisp. Pain and Panic fell forward and backwards till they hit the floor unconscious

Nikki watched quietly, almost surprised at Hades' unexpected temper. "so, if we're done here, where to next?"

"Next is Aladdin world where Jafar and Iago are." "No not Iago I can't stand that Buffon bag of feathers no let's leave him..." Hades stopped mid-sentence when he saw Jennifer's eyes turned from brown to red and she glared daggers at Hades. He quickly changed his answer "Umm... I..I ..I mean I would love Iago back yeah hehehehehe" Jennifer smirked victoriously and her eyes turned back to brown.

Smirking along with Jennifer as Nikki rolled her eyes, she pulled out her portal gun from her messenger bag. Shooting a blue portal open in front of them to their destination, she then put her gun back in her bag. She had recently created it a while back at home, almost forgetting about it.

"Woah Nikki how did you do that" Jennifer asked surprised

"made it myself, with a mix of technology and science." She responds with a grin, walking through the portal over to the next world.

"That's GENUIS right there" said Jennifer as she walked into the light that's in the portal that represents the Aladdin world. Then a red bird screamed and landed on top of Nikki's head.

"thanks." Nikki replies with a genuine, yet calm smile. With the portal closed behind them as everyone walked in, the hacker soon stood still as the bird perched onto her head, having a pokerface.

"Hey lady do you know where the street rat is by any chance if you do know I can take you to the palace to see the sultan or better yet the royal vizer jafar." Said the anonymous Red bird

To Nikki

Glaring up at him as she stood rather still, then casting a questioning glance at Jennifer and the gang. "do any of you guys know?"

"We don't know iago" jennifer said as the bird gave her a questioning glare and asked "How do you know my name?" " Iago babe don't you recognized our friends from elementary school and high school the one we ditch back then? I have to put it out there that Im sorry about everything that I said in the past it was such a stupid race and you guys didn't deserve that threat and I'm sorry i fell like its my fault that we all here in the kingdom" Hades cried and he lowered himself to the ground.

"can you sort of, just, get off my head?" Nikki asks, standing stiffly as her expression was a pokerface.

"oh sorry missy" iago said as he unperched himself off of nikki's head and looked at hades with a confused expression. "Yessh what happen to flame-head over there is he really cryin..." He stopped mid sentence as a fireball hit him in the chest which send him flying towards a wall and crashed. 'OUFFF' He fell to the floor uncousious

Loosening up as Nikki's pokerface remained, she watched quietly. "can we TRY, not to kill any of our friends?"

"Sorry I just hate that feathered freak" Hades said as he got up and acted as if nothing happen.

:Hades lets just focused on getting the villains grouped..." jennifer stopped mid-sentence as she groaned and clutched her stomach and her face twisted with pain

The transformer kids where worried and so was hades and iago who final recovered from the ground. Nikki went up to Jennifer to see if she was alright.

Putting a hand on Jeniffer's shoulder, Nikki had a questioning look on her face. "you alright?"

*Jennifer's

"Yeah I...i..i..i I"M fine" Jennifer said weakly the her face turned pale

"aand, I'm just going to assume no one's a doctor here, right?" Nikki says, glancing at the group.

"Nikki get jennifer a bucket or trash can quick hurry" Hades said as he rushed toward Jennifer and wrapped and arm around her wasit.

Rolling her eyes as she then jumped through another portal, and coming back as it closed behind her, tossing the trash bin to Hades.

Just as Jennifer was given the trash bin she barfed in it. The transformer family and the villains have disgusted looks on their faces.

Nikki simply stood in the background, shrugging as she scrolled through her iPhone for a couple minutes out of boredom.

The transformer family was talking almost themselves and Jennifer took this as a distraction to rush to the nearest portal potty

Jennifer entered the potty and took out her pregnancy test. After fifteen minutes of being in the potty Jennifer looked at the result in the pregnancy test in shock she crashed to the ground that was able to hear from thousand of miles. Meanwhile outside the portal potty the transformer kids and the villains were still talking almost themselves and they didn't feel the vibration but Nikki did.

Stopping as Nikki slipped her phone back in her messenger bag, she felt the tremors that had occurred from where Jennifer fell. "something's not right." The brunette comments, looking around for anything else to notice.

Jennifer came out of the postal potty still in shock while holding the pregnancy test in her right hand. She looked around for someplace to hide and saw an abandoned house and ran towards it. Jennifer looked around to see if anyone was watching her and she saw Nikki looking at her with a confused expression. Jennifer turned and ran to loose Nikki.

Nikki soon started sprinting towards Jennifer, following her as she ran, invisible.

Jennifer ran as fast as a jaguar and ran then she took out her wings and flew off towards a tall mountain and hid in the shadows of it.

Staying invisible as Nikki did the same, the hacker made sure she didn't lose sight of Jennifer.

Jennifer stooped running and turned to see if Nikki was still following her. When she didn't see her she sighed with relief and said "Whew ha I lost her thank the gods"

Grabbing Jennifer's arm as Nikki revealed herself right in front of her, she held a steady gaze as she watched the other's eyes.

"Ahh Nikki What the hell...where did you come from?!" Jennifer tried to wiggle out of her grasp but no avail. She looked at Nikki and did her stupid Face and said "AFLAC"

Rolling her eyes as Nikki allowed herself a momentary smirk, she then replies, "I did a pretty good job of following you, but Christ wouldn't it kill you to slow down a bit?" Turning serious as she kept her grip on Jennifer's arm, she knew what was already happening. "you know you can't hide this from everyone."

"Hide what nikki" jennifer questioned

"you know you're going to have kids, aren't you?"

"eh she he ha kids with megamind are you fucking serious he's an alien I'm a human it can never happen sure I love him and all."
jennifer said blushing

Letting out a sigh as her smirk returned, she only laughed lightly.
"it's funny how people always deny the fact that they're in love."

Ok but you better not tell anyone.I'll tell them at the palace hows that" jennifer smile her dream smile

"I won't say anything. it's all your priority, rather fact your life. just don't blame me if you decide not to mention anything, and everyone's all outraged later on."

"Ok Ill tell then at the palace. But just between you and me I kinda knew I was pregnant all that time even before that. It happen when me and megamind where in our 18 or 17 we went to the doctor and we got an ultrasound and we found out we were having 5 kids. The reason I didn't tell you or my mother and father its because me and megamind we were planning to tell it to everyone together in metro city in the barn don't be mad" Jennifer waited for nikki outburst and the slap to the face

"yeah, I figured that too." Nikki replies calmly with a shrug, letting go of Jennifer's arm. "we should probably get back before anyone notices anything."

"Right" jennifer and nikki walked back it took them 20 minutes and they found out that the gang are already with jafar in the palace. Jennifer smiked evilly as she took out a coconut cream pie as a plan already forming in her head.

"up for a prank?" Nikki whispers curiously, turning invisible again as she smirked.

"ha ha yep" jennifer smoked as both her and nikki sneaked up behind Jafar and SLAM the coconut Cream pie was splattered all over jafar face as he turn toward the two girl with a death glare.

smirked

"Ha I got you Jafar hows..." Jennifer passed out Immedialty the last thing she saw was the villains and the transformer family surrounding her and hades calling every single villain from our school to help her up. She heard Captain James Hook said "Boys get Jennifer to me cabin in the ship hurry men hurry." Then she blacked out

Nikki lost her smirk as Jennifer fainted, soon becoming bored again as she became visible.

~ 6 hours later~

CLASH! Jennifer bolted up rapidly only to have been push back down gently on the Bed. Wait Bed aren't they in agrabah. Jennifer eyes open and was meet with a girl with long brown hair that reached the floor. Jennifer said "Nikki is that you ugh my head" She rubbes her head and lays on her side

"yes it's me, and fyi, you've been out for 6 hours." Nikki replies, sitting back down in the chair that was placed next to Jennifer's bed. "so much for telling everyone, huh?" She comments with a small grin, twirling a lightbulb in midair with her psionics, black and white electrical energy making the blub glow.

"Yeah hey i don't have any energy can you tell the villains about my kids and me being soon to be ms megamind'' jennifer blushed and handed nikki an ultrasound pic with 5 with figure babies in each individual sack.

"why don't you just page everyone in here?"

"ok that too." Jennifer called the villains in the cabin. Not more then 4minutes later the door burst open and the villains entered the room with worried expression on their faces. In the room was Hades, Ursula, Maleficent, Scar, Shere Khan, Captain Hook and his crew, Dr Facilier, Kaa the python, Shenzi Banzai and Ed the three hyenas, Jafar, Cruella De Ville, Queen Of Hearts, The Fates, Pain and Panic, Iago, Queen Grimhilda, Judge Frollo, Ratigan, Shan Yu, Treamblaine and Two Stepsisters, Gaston, Le Fou,

Clayton, Ratcliffe, Yzma, and Mother Gothel

"Im Fine you guys. Listen I have something to tell each and every one of you" Jennifer said nervously as she took out her pregnancy test from her pocket and showed it to everyone and said "Im Pregnant with Megamind's Kids" Just as she said the words the female villains cried and went up to jennifer to hug her while the male villiains just stood their with their eyes wide and mouth hung open.

Nikki continued to distract herself with the lightbulb, rolling her eyes as everyone else reveled in the shock of Jennifer's pregnancy.

10. Chapter 10

As jennifer was getting ready to get out of bed the jolly roger shoke violently. "Woah Whats going on" Rebecca Screamed.

Nikki only groaned in disappointment as her psionics caused the lightbulb to burn out, standing as she tried to look outside the window. "oh shit." She comments.

Everyone turned to the door and was about to charge when came bursting throughout the door "CAPTAIN A GROUP OF SCIENTIST HAVE INVADED THE SHIP ORDERED BY A MAN CALLED JEB BATCHELDER!" Thats when the transformers kids grew angry.

Nikki quickly spread out her golden-colored wings, flying up to the front deck as she met Jeb Batchelder, ready to take him down. "what the hell do you want this time?" She asked, her tone sharp, yet bored and dull.

"MWAHAHAHA wow Nikki sweet heart you sure have grown up'' jeb caressed nikki skin and whispered ''come join me and all that pain will go away just like your parents sweetheart''

Glaring at him as she quickly moved to chop his wrist, her gaze was acidic, her psionics sparking black and white. "don't. touch me." She says, her tone of voice cold as she watched his eyes.

"SON OF A BITCH I'LL FUCK YOU FOR THAT" Jeb cursed at her.

"You think talking to a dead brother is fun every night? and ew, who the hell wants to do it with YOU?"

"Your Mother will" Jeb smirked

"Oh wait she already did before she met your father" Jeb grinned wickedly

"Not if the DEVIL does it with you first!" She yells, uppercutting him to the jaw as she flew at him, enraged./p

~~~Meanwhile below the Brig of the ship~~~

Raven was drinking rum, chilling out till a scientist came through the door in rage and was looming over raven. Raven looked up unimpressed and grabbed the bottle of rum and whacked the man uncousious with it.

Raven Went upstairs of the ship and saw a humongous fight happening between the scientist and the Kings and Queens of planet Earth. Raven walks calmly through the fight no one paid attention to her. She saw her target Jeb Batchelder so she walked up toward him and raised a bottle of rum to his head.

>~~~Normal POV~~~~Just as jennifer finished her attack on the scientist their was a SMASH. Everyone stopped as if someone pressed the pause button and turned around till every eye landed on Jeb Batchelder who's on the floor uncousious with glass all around him.

Nikki's eyes went up and saw Raven there holding a half glass rum broken and smirking drunkly.

The separate red and blue tint on her dark brown eyes seemed to glow as she looked up, staring at Raven. "mind if I get a couple bottles of those?" She asked curiously, pointing to her broken rum bottle.

>"O...(HICCUP)...K " Raven walked downstairs and grabbed two bottles and went back upstairs and handed one to Nikki." Here You...(HICCUP)...GG...OO"

Taking the bottle deftly as she popped the cork off, she took a swig of rum, then proceeding to kick the unconscious Jeb off of the ship's deck. "you see, there's tons of reasons why I can easily kick your ass in an instant. the only problem is that you keep coming back for the beatings." Nikki says calmly as she proceeds to keep kicking Jeb hard in his sides with her black dress boots, eventually shoving him off of the ship, into the waters. "insufferable prick." She mutters under her breath, continuing to drink.

"Hahahahahahaha oh hahahahahahaha" jennifer laughed and rolled across the floor clutching her stomach.

"You do realized he's not dead even though you kicked him lots of times right babe "Hades said while taking a swing of martini.

"Yeah I know. just wanted the asshole off the ship." Nikki replies, taking another swig of rum as she watched the seas.

"What about the ressssssssst" Kaa hissed evilly.

"I'm Ready to rip them apart" shenzi the hyena said drooling "Or we could eat them to death" Ed the hyena laughed histareically and licked his chops.

"Whatever doesn't kill you." Nikki says, soon becoming drunk as her bottle was almost half empty.

"Ok mate that enough rum for you missy" Captain Hook said as he grabbed the bottle of rum from nikki and haul nikki with his hook and put her in a room with two male pirates and said to them "make sure she rest this girl is getting drunk and i don't need another girl on me ship getting drunk" he said as he locked the door and went up to the helm.

"hah, I see how it is." Nikki slurs, attempting to escape, although soon turning into the tired drunken stage as she soon fell asleep.

~~~~~24 Hours Later~~~~~

"Darling wake up chere time for breakfast'' A charismatic voice said to Nikki sleeping form.

"Hmm.." Nikki moans, her face buried in the pillow, her head aching as she refused to wake up. Two of the pirates were trying to clean up an area of vomit in the corner of the room.

"Easy Chere easy" the voice said again as he helped nikki up to a sitting position and handed her a blue vial "here drink this and the headache will go away".

Giving the voice a questioning look as she then glared at the vial, she rubbed her eyes, putting on her glasses, clearing her vision to find Dr. Facilier handing her the vial.

Giving him a sleepy smile as she drank the blue substance, she gave it back to him. "thanks." She replies, still smiling as she was in a tired haze of a hangover.

"Your Quite come on everyone is below deck having breakfast and there is no breakfast without you" He said giving her a smile and wraps an arm around her shoulder steady her. Shadow was balancing Nikki shadow as well.

Giving her friend a nod as she walked with him, she always seemed to admire how the shadows could be so helpful. "mind if you could teach me how to control shadows too someday?" She asks curiously.

"hehe its risky you gotta have to sell your soul to the friends on the other side and do rituals then you have your own shadow alive and you can control them" Dr Facilier turned in front of her with a serious expression.

Nikki's curiosity felt lost at this. "oh. I think I'd leave the cool voodoo stuff to you anyways." She says, shrugging her shoulders as she gave him a sleepy grin.

"heh alright but just between you and me" He looked around to see if anyone was watching and said "jennifer has voodoo".

"what? that's so unfair." She says, feeling a bit jealous as she lost her smile.

"But this voodoo was cursed its not my voodoo or my friends on the other side voodoo" Dr Facilier said Sternly

"Ah, I see." Nikki says, thinking a little bit about it before approaching the breakfast table.

"I Think is better if i tell you right now come with me" Dr Facilier lead nikki to the rum room and closed the door. He puts a hand to his head and sighed.

"Oh, sure." She says, agreeing to follow him as they turned around back to the rum cellar.

"Ok it all started here" Dr facile lead Nikki a book with voodoo symbols and the book had the autobot symbol on it "Touch the Autobot Symbol"

Reaching her hand out as her fingers lightly touched the logo on the cover, Nikki watched with curious eyes.

A burst of white filled the room. As quickly as it came it left and when they both open their eyes they realized they where in World War 2 California Bomb every falling and fire was everywhere.

>"Everything you see here is a memory of Jennifer's and as for us we are invisible voodoo style it happens when you enter a memory. Look over there." Dr Facilier points to where Jeb Batchelder is running with an infant baby in hand.

"That's Jen." Nikki points out, feeling the urge to reach out and help as she watched, no longer curious as things turned serious.

"Easy we can't help remember were invisible lets follow them and you'll see" Dr facilier walks with nikki and follows Jeb Batchleder to the lab.

Feeling lost as she saw her oldest brother and her mom in the midst of fire, she pulled herself back to following Jeb and Dr. Facilier.

Nikki and Facilier both reached the lab and they saw Jennifer strapped to the Experimentation table whimpering. She whimpered even louder as Jeb Slapped her across the face. They watched as Jennifer glared at Jeb and Bit his Hand Cried in agony.

Nikki watched in silence, unable to help, keeping the fact in mind that she and Dr. Facilier were unable to be seen.

"Why you little bitch Take this" Jeb got a knife and slashed Jennifer's stomach. She cried. Three more scientists came into the room and put Jennifer to sleep with anesthesia. Just as the four scientists left Jennifer at the table Jeb stopped mid way and looked at Jennifer sleeping form and grinned evilly. He opened the drawer next to him and pulled out a dark purple and red ink synrige and walked up to Jennifer and plunged the needle into Jennifer's neck and pushed the substance in and grabbed a blue synrige and put it in Jennifer's system as well. "Let's see if you can live with 2 Curses Mwahahahaha" Jeb stormed out of there leaving Jennifer on the table whimpering as a scientist entered the room grabbed Jennifer and put her in a Light. Appear before them again and the world vanished and they were in the rum room again.

Nikki was quiet at this, still thinking about what she had just witnessed before her eyes.

"That Dark Purple and Red synrige was the Voodoo Curse while the Blue one was the Ice and Snow curse" Dr. Facilier led Nikki out of the rum room and into the Breakfast room and they both saw Jennifer leaning against a window with Saphira. "Why don't you talk to her Nikki" Facilier left Nikki alone to talk to Jafar and Hades.

Quietly walking in as she leaned against a wall, she managed a small smile for Jafar and Hades as she greeted them.

Jennifer was looking out to sea with sad eyes she played with her ice curse very small so no one can see. She made a snowflake appear she smiled a bit as she felt her blue dress coming in form of snow she saw this and quickly hid it.

Hey there." Nikki comments as she appears next to her, leaning against the wall as she managed to catch her using the ice curse.

"Oh um Hi" Jennifer said quickly as she hid her ice curse singing Let it Go softly 'Let it go let it go can't hold it back anymore' Just as she sang the curse quickly left.

"There's no purpose to hide it, because a little bird already told me of them both."

"Ha Facilier I'm guessing" Jennifer laughed nervously.

"Yah, just don't hurt him for it." Nikki replies with a small smile.

'It's alright I won't just don't know how to control them both'

"Well yeah, they're curses, what did you expect?" Nikki responds sarcastically.

"True Nikki I just wish I can control them" Jennifer said sadly

"I'm pretty sure you can somehow, you just have to find out how to use them."

"Ok ill find out how" jennifer smiled at nikki and went up to the deck.

Grabbing a cup of coffee, Nikki then followed her, unable to get the thought out of her head.

Hades walked upstairs and saw Nikki following Jennifer who's deep in thought. He walked up to Nikki glided in front of her stopping her from following Jennifer.

"What's the problem chief?" Nikki asks curiously, messing with him.

"What's wrong with you Nikki you , jennifer , and facilier have been acting weird lately not to mention you guys were late for breakfast this morning say 30minutes late now." Hades pushed Nikki against the wall of the ship. He leaned towards Nikki and smirked evilly at her. "What have you 3 been up to and don't lie I know because I lie all the time to Wayne Scott."

Nikki only smirked back, watching his movements as he glared at her. "Facilier only wanted to show me something, and did it occur to you that I'm still hungover?" She questions him.

"Oh still drunk are we little girl can't hold her alcohol" Hades tease at Nikki while giving her a toothy grin.

"I'm a 20 year old female who's recently kicked an insane bastard scientist off this ship, and you know what else? I talk to my dead brother's ghost every night." She says with a defiant grin, although it flickered at the mention of her family member she was closest to.

"Ah yes I've notice you have been talking to him through that computer of yours every night when all of us are asleep even jennifer, and for the record Nikki you forgot that iam The Lord of the dead I knew all that time you were talking to him in our teenage years and still are." Hades layed a blue greyish hand on her shoulder and said "If you want to talk to your family come to me heck I can even bring them back to life when all of this is over cuz I noticed how your sad at night thinking of your family. And I know how you feel my father swallow me whole along with posiden." Hades cringe at the memory.

"Actually, I didn't forget that. I just chose not to bring them back." She says quietly, instantly losing her smile as it faded, blank. "I'm too used to talking to dead people's spirits anyways. Besides, I'm a modified mess." She says with a shrug.

"You sure you don't want to bring them back" Hades suggested.

"Yeah, I'd prefer not taking the risk of losing them again anyways. it's written in the stars, they're safer as ghosts."

"Alright then but any time you want to come and see your family whole come to the underworld sometime when all of this is over you can spend as much time as you want with them. Oh and you don't need a pass to the underworld just fly in with your dragon any time ok"

Hades gave her a smile.

"Sure. thanks Hades." She says with a small smile, then turning invisible so she could slip away.

"Hey while your invisable mind giving Jafar and taste of his own magic if you know what I mean" Hades got out a coconut cream pie and handed it to Nikki.

"yep." She responds, grinning as she quietly walked behind Jafar, instantly splattering his face with the pie as she then walked away, turning visible as she laughed to herself.

"Your such an idiot!" Jafar screamed playfully at Nikki as she turned invisable " I'm like hit me right here I ...where are you I'll kill you Nikki" Jafar said playfully as he ran across the deck looking for Nikki as his snake staff turned red.

Covering her mouth as she hid her laughter, quickly turning invisible within a mere second as she flew above the ship.

"Ugh what's all the racket" Jennifer said as she came out the cabin with her pants wet.

"haha!" Nikki laughs, watching as Jafar searched for her, while really, she was circling around above his head, "why don't you follow the sound of my voice? can't detect it?" She says curiously, teasing him.

Jafar looked up and saw Nikki smirking at him. He got out his staff and blasted Nikki with it.

Nikki quickly moved out of the way, revealing herself as she was visible. Smirking as she snapped her fingers, colored holograms of the hacker surrounded Jafar, taunting him from above as they all matched the same movements.

Jafar saw this and he growled and started zapping all of the holograms of Nikki making them dissappear revealing the real Nikki at the helm. Jafar smirked as his red smoke swirled around him and turned him to a giant red Genie with yellow eyes and his loud voice boomed at Nikki "watcha gonna do now protector of the stars MWAHAHAHAHA"

Grinning as her psionics sparked black and white with excitement, her eyes seemed to glow with their separate tints as she flew rapidly around him for a distraction.

"Ok kids enough playing around on me ship or ILL MAKE YOU SCRUB THE FLOORS OF THE DECK WITHOUT MAGIC FOR AN ENTIRE MONTH." Captain Hook screamed at Nikki and Jafar from the helm with dangerous eyes glaring at them.

"for your info, I'm a 20 year old independent female. I don't really 'fit' as a kid anymore." She says honestly, lowering herself to the deck as her psionics calmed down, her eyes no longer lit.

"I'm just kidding with yeah mate" Captain Hook said as he lifted his hand and hook as a surrender and smirked at Nikki Grinning as she gave him a nod and a thumbs up, she hoped Hades saw everything from below.

"Ha I got everything on video" Hades exclaimed as he glided rapidly towards Nikki and James hook as he took out an eyeball camera and activated.

"hell yes!" She exclaims, watching the footage as she laughed with Hades.

The video got to the part where Jennifer appears with her pants wet outside of the cabin and she rapidly went down to the brig Hades paused the video there and looked at the Nikki and Captain Hook with concern.

"wait, pause it there, where Jen came in." Nikki says, pointing to her figure with concern and curiosity.

Hades rewinds the video and pauses it at Jennifer's shot. Where Jennifer's pants appear to be wet on the sides.

"what did she do, take a dive in the waves?" Nikki asks, puzzled as she then went downstairs to the Brig to go and search for her.

Meanwhile Jennifer was walking anxiously around the brig saying "why now dear god why now and when we are so close into killing Jeb Batchelder it had to happen now." Jennifer grew even more nervous when the door to the brig opened.

Nikki stood in the doorway, suspicious of what Jennifer had to hide. "I suggest dropping the secrecy act, because let's face it, Hades was right when he said you were acting strange. You do know everyone's gotten to thinking there's something wrong that only YOU seem to know about, right?"

"Ok come here and close the damn freaking door" Jennifer yelled

"yelling only makes things more suspicious." Nikki jokes, closing the door behind her as she then floated aimlessly with her psionics. "so you going to tell me what's up?" She asks, feeling curious again.

"It's time Nikki" Jennifer said nervously

"time for what? just cut to the chase already."

"YOU WANNA WANNA KNOW WHAT'S UP MY KIDS ARE COMING THAT'S WHAT'S UP I HAD 3 CONTRACTIONS ALREADY WHICH MEANS WHERE IN HUGE TROUBLE JEB BATCHELDER NOTS DEFEATED YET AND MY KIDS ARE COMING OUT RIGHT NOW NIKKI!" Jennifer screamed at Nikki's face with tears in her eyes as she turned away from her.

Nikki instantly lost her sense of curiosity as Jennifer killed her good mood. "thanks for reminding me of the reality I live in." She replies dully, standing as her psionics stopped.

"Sorry and what do you mean what happens out there. What was all that racket about" Jennifer asked sadly but with a hint of curiosity.

"nothing. just, nevermind." Nikki replies, her expression deadpan as she walked out the door, closing it behind her.

Dr facilier shadow saw every thing that happen and flew to Jennfer asking her what's wrong. Jennifer explained to shadow what happen between her and Nikki and her kids coming now. Shadows eyes went wide and rushed to Nikki. He then saw her with the rest of the villains sitting sadly.

Turning around as Nikki sat with her laptop, she then refocused herself back to her codes. "oh hey Shadow." She comments, her tone of voice sounding annoyed yet dull.

"Hey what's wrong" Shadows voice sounded like dr facilier but more handsomer. He sat down next to Nikki and puts a shadow hand on her shoulder.

>"Jen managed to be a buzzkill of my mood. Not that I exactly blame her, but her yelling stabbed right through my fun that I managed to grasp for once." She replies, letting out a sigh.

"It wasn't her. You know how pregnant women are these days the pain that the kids cause by kicking her , having her contractions is extremely painful. She didn't mean to kill your good mood shes just under pressure for 3years. All you gotta do is be there for her when the kids are born think about it you carrying jennifer kids having fun with them you being their aunty. Jennifer laughing along side you when you do tricks in the air with your dragon while holding her children and them laughing hard to belive she the best friend you ever had if it wasn't for you she would have never had fun all of these years in her life if it wasn't for you. She saved you lots of times along with us in the past don't you think you should give her a favor ?" Shadow got up from his seat and went up deck to the helm where Dr facilier is.

Nikki thought about this, knowing that Jennifer's been under a lot of pressure lately. But that didn't dismiss the fact that Jennifer was the only one that mattered, because, it seemed true to Nikki. That she herself didn't really matter to anything else. Only becoming more conflicted as she continued to code, Shadow's words played again in her mind. "I'm not the family type." She murmurs under her breath, putting in her earbuds as she worked in silence, except for the music that played in her ears.

Jennifer saw everything that happen between Nikki and Shadow and smiled lightly as she walked up to Nikki and gave her microship parts and a memory port and walked up to the deck without saying anything. Unknown to her Nikki was watching her with a smile on her face.

Lowering her Macbook's lid to find the several microchips and the USB port, she gazed at the gift as her eyes lit up with ideas, looking up to flash a small smile at Jennifer as she then went back to her lines of code.

"I'll be lucky if my hand isn't crippled." Nikki says sarcastically, wincing as Jennifer let go of her hand.

"She so beautiful" jennifer cried softly as she looked at her child who already stopped crying and opened her eyes everyone gasp and realized its the same color eyes Megamind has bright green. The Green eyes looked at everyone in wonder but her eyes stopped at Nikki.

Nikki perked up at this, grinning sheepishly as she still felt awkward. "hey there." She says quietly as she waved a tiny greeting to Jennifer's new child.

"Aunty" the child said as she reaches her tiny hands for Nikki

Smiling nervously as Nikki held out her hand, she allowed the small child to hold it.

Chuckling Hades asked "what's the child's name Jennifer?"

Everyone was shocked at this they were so busy interacting with Jennifer child they forgot to ask what was the child name. "Yeah what is it mate" Captain Hook asked curiosity.

Jennifer answered "Sophia Transformer Bleu"

Sophia jumped off of Jennifer's arms and landed on Nikki's arms. Nikki was shocked By this.

Nikki looked curiously at the new child, holding her as the little girl sat in her arms, smiling a small, yet friendly smile at Sophia.

"Are you done yet cuz hurry up I wanna lick her" Scar said as his paw healed and walked up to Nikki holding Sophia. His tail wagged violently.

"haha, so long as Jennifer gives you permission." Nikki says, kneeling down in front of Scar as she held Sophia for him.

"Sure" jennifer said smiling "Always"

Scar smiled at both Nikki and Jennifer and he looked down and saw Sophia looking at him with wonder and reached out to him. Scar puts his face closer to Sophia and lick her 10 times. He stopped licking to see what her reaction would be. Sophia gaged at the saliva and mange to wipe half her face of the saliva.

Letting Sophia climb on top of Scar, Nikki stood back up by Jennifer's side, watching as she smiled.

Scar gave Sophia piggy back rides played with her lion style and cuddle with her. By the time Sophia made contact with Scar fur she yawned and fell asleep instantly beside scar.

~~STORY MODE~~

>Jennifer looked at Sophia from the bed and smiled sweetly at her daughter and looked at Hades and whispered "What do You think of Sophia Indigo?"

Hades looked at Jennifer surprisingly for using his real name and smiled his toothy smile and said "She's wonderful babe just like you and the rest of the Transformer Kids"

"Aww thanks indigo" Jennifer said sweetly she went to pick up Sophia when everyone heard one of James crew said "LAND HO"

Perking up at this, Nikki ran to the top deck to of the ship, curious to where they would be going next.

Jennifer picked up Sophia and follow suit with everyone trailing behind her and what she saw shocks her. Ahead of the ship was a white building with doctors and scientist inside but one in particular caught her attention a man with blond hair and blue eyes and a lab coat that has the red symbol of veterinarian with black angel wings on each side one name came to mind. Jennifer said hoarsely "Jeb Batchelder" As Jennifer said his name he turned around and saw Jennifer and the Kings and Queens of Planet Earth but one person caught his eye a blue bundle baby in Jennifer's arms. At first he couldn't breathe but then smiled evilly at the child. Without him noticing Nikki was watching from the top deck at him.

Nikki was watching Jeb Batchelder intently, her gaze acidic as the separate tints in her eyes glowed faintly.

>Jeb chuckled at Nikki and blew a raspberry at her and turned to walk inside the Disney Hospital.

Nikki simply flipped him off, glaring at him with cold eyes.

As Jeb was out of sight Jennifer and the gang planned a attack.

"Ok here's the deal every single villain is going to stop Jeb Batchelder and his gang for controlling the Disney Hospital that includes the transformer kids except for me. I'm going to locate my parents in the hospital while you Nikki get to kick some..." jennifer covered Sophia ears and said "Ass at Ari Jeb Batchelders son."

Nikki nods, feeling spiked up as she ran off to go and search for Ari, turning invisible as she went.

13. Chapter 13

~~NIKKI'S POV~~

The brunette hacker walked along the halls, avoiding anyone else she saw as she roamed the sterile halls in silence. Stopping as she found two double doors looming over her, the signs read, "EXPERIMENTATION LAB - KEEP OUT, STAFF ONLY." Opening the doors to a slight opening, Nikki slipped through, letting the doors close quietly behind her as she noticed Ari standing in the corner.

"Glad you can make it Experiment 13" Ari snarled and showed his yellow wolf like teeth.

"what let you know I'm here, wolf?" Nikki replies with an edge to her tone, sharp as she stared at Jeb's son, revealing herself as she turned visible.

"I can smell you scent birdy and that delicious daughter of experiment 11. That alien girl is gonna be experiment 14 and this one we won't leave her ALIVE we can't wait to see what her organs look like heck I mighty even eat...her..." Ari walked to a table that had a girl on top of it with really long blonde hair. Ari thrust his hand where the girl heart is and janked it out of her system and crushed it. "Heart" ari smirked evilly at the dead body of Repunzel then back at Nikki.

Nikki didn't flinch, keeping a solid gaze at Ari. "I'd rather send you to Hell, you sick bastards."

"Hahahahaahaha like you can" Ari grabbed Nikki and threw her at the wall. She crashed landed on a machete which left a large scar down her back. Ari licked his chops "delicious" Ari licked Nikki scar cleaning off the blood that was pouring out.

Having the wind knocked out of her, Nikki let out a cough, a pool of blood landing on the floor as it streamed from the corner of her mouth, wincing at the searing pain. "s-shit..!" She coughs out, trying to inch away from Ari. "y-you sick fuck..!"

"Ha ha yummy meat" Ari roared as he felt something hit his back and realized it was fire. He looked up and and what he sw shocks him. A man with blue and grey skin and blue fire for hair and eyes as yellow as the demon it's self. The man smirked at Ari with an evil grin and said "back off!" The man erupted in flames burning Ari.

Staggering to get up as she bled out from both her back and her mouth, Nikki looked up to find tongues of flames licking at Ari, her psionics starting to kick in, the separate tint of her eyes glowing. Rushing towards Ari, she sent shockwaves through her opponent, black and white electric-like sparks popping around her.

"Arghhhhhhhhh" Ari screamed then a white like mist came out of his body. Nikki was confused but Hades wasn't he took the mist out of Ari and the body fell to the ground. His faces was burned a blood was pouring out of his body but he couldn't feel it because he was lifeless.

Nikki stood silent, watching in confusion until she was able to figure it out. "one of his souls.." She whispers to herself, stopping to cough out blood onto the floor. The large gash in the left side of her back was close to gushing blood.

Hades saw this and quickly came over to Nikki he put his hand over her heart and told her "focus on all of your souls together Nikki. He said seriously.

"h-how?"

"Close your eyes and rest your powers once you do you'll see blackness but in that blackness you will see three mists those are your souls. I want you to put as much relaxation as possible to your system and breathe bit don't leave that place I need to concentrate in bringing you back to normal."

Giving Hades a nod, she obediently did as he instructed, closing her eyes as she waited for the darkness to arrive.

Hades saw that Nikki is relax and he did his thing he put dark treadmill wrapped around her body and snapped his fingers Nikki glowed green and it went up and down her body then BAM. And sonic blast erupted from Nikki and she opens her eyes eruptedly.

Opening her eyes, they flashed black and white, just like her psionics. She couldn't stop, they felt like they were on fire, as if her psionics were blasting from her eyes.

"Ok Nikki listen drink this chere" a New Orleans voice said as the figure handed her a blue like vial.

Nikki waved her arms out in front of her. "I can't see.. stupid eyes won't stop flashing.."

Nikki was handed a vial by dr. Facilier and she drank it and her psionics stopped flashing and her eyes return to normal

Blinking, Nikki's vision was restored. She was no longer coughing up blood, but she couldn't see the wound on her back, trying to look over her shoulder.

"Hehe no need to look but if you want to here" Hades magically made two mirrors appear in front of Nikki and back

Nikki looked up at the mirror in front of her, reflecting the one behind her so that she could properly look at the wound. All she saw was a scar on the left side of her back, spanning from her waist to half her arm.

"Oh wait not done yet" Hades snapped his fingers and scar magically disappear like it wasn't there all Nikki looked at the mirrors again, seeing that her scar had vanished. Shrugging, she managed a small smile for Hades and Dr. Facilier.

"thanks." She comments quietly.

"Your welcome now let's..."BOOOOOOOOOM! One of the room erupted in flames in the hallway. The gang came rushing out and they saw Jennifer fighting scientist's one in particular Jeb Batchelder. They saw Jennifer push a soda machine to the ground and kicked it toward her parents her father quickly stopped it. "Stay down" Jennifer said sternly and rushed towards a scientist grabbed him and pushed him through the glass wide windows and the scientist screamed as he was falling from the 19th floor down to his death. Jennifer turned toward the other scientist and grabbed a metal bar and plunged it through the mans chest killing him instantly. Then Jennifer ran toward the windows and crashed into them and fell from the 19th floor down and crashed between a bus and a car.

Nikki watched by the sidelines, witnessing the flames and broken glass, looking down as she saw Jennifer land.

~~END NIKKI POV~~

14. Chapter 14

"Ahhh god that hurts god dammit" Jennifer slowly rises off of the ground and starts walking. By passers were in shock at display. Jennifer was covered in blood stains on her arm and legs. She limped from the the crashing sight to the the front of the hospital building. She was about to enter when... 'BANG'. Jennifer looked down and saw a bullet sick out of her chest she then heard a voice. "Upon a soul Jennifer your no different then your villain friends." Jennifer turned around angrily and walked steamed up toward Jeb Batchelder. "BANG". " I'm shutting those villains down Jennifer. It's been a nice run." Jennifer kept walking toward him. "BANG" Jennifer cough blood she can already see the Fates pull out her thread of life. Then Nikki saw everything and rushed to the underworld to stop the fates for cutting Jennifer's Thread of Life.

Nikki flew to Hades, grabbing him by the arm. "you HAVE to take me to the underworld, please." She says urgently, her gaze solid yet serious.

"Ok ok let's go" Hades snapped his fingers quickly and they disappear in a cloud of smoke. The three fates were midway in cutting Jennifer Thread Of Life "girls don't you think this mortal looks familiar" the short one said. All three fates looks closely at the scene and the tall one said "well she does look familier but I can't put my tongue on it". Meanwhile Nikki and Hades appear in the underworl and they look rapidly for the fates. They looked for 20mins then they saw them on top of the throne room with a thread of life. Nikki eyes went wide.

Nikki watched in awe, the dreaded feeling of death surrounding her. "don't cut that thread! she's a Protector!" The brunette yells.

"Huh?" the three fates saw a mortal with Hades they flew down. "Hades who's this?" Nikki quickly answered and giving them the memories as quickly as she can to the fates.

"my name's Nikki, Protector of the Stars. that cord you're about to cut is the closest person I have to family left." The brunette hacker proceeds, recalling and explaining recent events and past memories for them.

"Oh my we didn't know where sorry if we forgot Nikki here will save Jennifer." The Three Fates hold the Thread Of Life tightly in their grasp and then the Thread of Life glowed in different colors then it returned back to white thread. The Three Fates look at Nikki with kind smiles and said "she's alive but she is still fighting. Will make sure to keep her alive but you and the villains should do your own part in protecting her now go!".

Nikki grinned back at them, giving them a nod as she looked over at Hades.

"Ok I get the message let's go kick his ass" Hades eyes turned mischievous and dark. He teleported them back to the scene Jennifer was alive and well and she was still fight Jeb.

Jeb glared at Jennifer who's playing like she is about to die and said evilly "Oh we are all sincerely gonna miss you but it is time for you to move on. And maybe to a happier place. You can thank me if you want to Queen of Planet Earth" (Gun cocks at Jennifer head) Hades and Nikki screamed in fury and ran towards Jeb Batchelder.

Nikki instantly started sparking up in white and black electric fury, rushing towards the maniacal scientist as she unfurled her gold-like wings.

Hades automatically started to turn red his flames all over his body. He made out of thin air a machete that lights on fire and screamed in fury "Agggggghhhhhhhhhhhhhhh" The machete made contact with Jeb's arms and "SLICE" "Awwwwwww!" Jeb looked at his shoulders where his arms used to be. They were pouring pounds and pounds of blood on the floor. He glared at Hades and said angrily "You didn't Son Of A Bitch" He turned to Nikki who was grinning wickedly.

Nikki simply grinned, bearing her teeth slightly as the separate tints of her eyes glowed. "good luck trying to cut me open!" She yells, delivering an uppercut to the scientist, cracking his jaw.

Jeb screamed angrily at her "Bitch" He got up and walked towards Nikki till "BANG" A car slammed and ran over Jeb Batchelder but no one saw the car as if the car was invisible.

15. Chapter 15

Nikki just gaped in awe, her eyes wide as she stared at the run-over scientist, black tire track scrolled across his back. Her psionics stopping, the glow in her eyes leaving as she stood. "roadkill.." She comments, her grin returning.

The person who was riding the invisible car came and grinned evilly at Jeb. "That what you get you fucking shit"

The man was a blue alien with a black goatee , emerald eyes, leather spikes with a blue lightning bolt going down his attire and a dehydration gun pointed at the scientist. "I thinking you mean fucking sir" A gorilla suit with a fish for a head said. "Same thing Minion now be cautious who knows if any of those scientist are here." "Right sir" They both started walking to the front of the hospital.

Nikki simply gazed at the invisible car, and then back to Megamind as she watched him approach where Hades and the brunette hacker stood, along with Jennifer lying on the street.

"Wahoo jeb dead wahoo which one of the villains killed him Nikki so I can give them my gradittude." Jennifer said as she jumped from where she was lying and ran towards Nikki her brown eyes sparkling.

"look behind you." Nikki says with a mischievous grin, pointing over to Megamind.

Jennifer turned to where Nikki was pointing and her Jaw fell to the floor. Megamind was the same as well they both at the same time "Wha ...how ...why ... HONEY! Jennifer and Megamind screamed and ran towards each other. They both embraced and kisses passionalty and looked into each other's eyes. While Jennifer looked at Megaminds eyes she imeddiatly thought of Sophia. Jennifer kiss Megamind one more time till she ran inside the hospital looking for her daughter leaving a confused Megamind behind. He looked over at Nikki then to Hades his eyes started to water and he ran toward them and hugged them .

Nikki stood stiff, feeling as if she were being choked by the hug, rolling her eyes as her expression was a pokerface. "bleh, don't bore me with your obsessive love for each other." She comments dully.

"Hah so what became of jennifer and why did she ran off like that" megamind asked concern in his emerald eyes.

"she has a special secret to tell you. I'm merely the keeper, not the messenger." Nikki says, her grin returning.

"Dammit alright then. Who's that on the corner of the Hospital." Megamind pointed to a drunk avain bird with a bottle of rum in her hands. Meanwhile Raven was at the Corner of the Hospital drinking rum till a scientist came up toward her with a machete it was the same scientist from the Jolly Roger who she knocked up. Again she looked up unimpressed and magically made a broken humongous rum bottle and grinned drunkly at the scientist who said "Oh Crap not this again" "SLAM" the rum bottle came down at the scientist who's arm was sticking out and holding a white flag as of surrender. Raven looked at the scientist smirking evilly and said "try to fuck me now asshole" Raven spit at the scientist and went to her spot and continued drinking.

"oh that's Raven. we're rum buddies." Nikki says with a grin, turning around to wave at her. "hey! toss one down here!" The brunette hacker calls out.

"Sure" Raven tossed 20 bottles of rum toward Nikki.

Nikki quickly zoomed to catch the bottles, her arms full as she signals a double thumbs up at Raven. "thanks!" She calls out, grinning.

"Your such a drunk manic Ms Nikki Savvy." A British like pirat voice said chuckling. The man appear to be a Disney Pirate who's name is Captain Jack Sparrow.

He turned around and said to his pirate mates we got a load tonight thanks to this lovely lass and her friends for saving every Disney character Walt made imaginable now let's go to tortuga my friends aye?" AYE said his pirate crew and they went up a board the Black Pearl and sailed away to tortuga.

"nope." Nikki replies with a teasing smile, until Jennifer came back running with a child in her arms.

"Jennifer I was so worried why were you run..." Megamind stopped midway till his eyes went down to a blue baby in Jennifer's arms. His eyes went wide he walked toward Jennifer slowly. Every Disney character was watching from HEROS to villains to princesses to animals etc and also the Kings and Queens of Planet earth were watching with simles on their faces. Megamind stopped infront of Jennifer looking at the child who was so much like him with her enormously large head, emerald eyes and a face that looks so much like Jennifer's. At first Megamind was confused he look up at Jennifer demanding a explanation. "Megamind what you are seeing in my arms is not an illusion it's real. He turned pale in his case a lighter blue he said shaking " C...Can I ...hhhh...Hold...Hhhh...Her?" He said a his arms went toward his child shaking. Jennifer nodded while smiling and handed over Sophia to Megamind. Megamind grabbed his daughter and look down at her with a smile he said softly that only The transformer kids and The gods can hear. Nikki says, smiling back at her.

"Ah ok I'm just about to giving a message to the Great Autobot Warriors living in the skies wanna hear" Jennifer said proudly.

"sure, why not?" Nikki replies, gazing up at the stars. The brunette hacker always loved this, because she was able to see souls in the stars of people who have passed away, being able to communicate with them whenever she liked. Although she was always able to spot her mom and her oldest brother, sometimes even her middle brother and her father.

"With Jeb Batchelder gone, his plan to destroy planet earth was terminated. And Fate has yielded its reward, a new world to call home. We live among its people now , hiding in plain sight, but watching over them in secret ,waiting, protecting. I have witnessed the Kings and Queens capacity for courage. And though we are world apart, like us, there's more to them then meets the eye. I am Jennifer Queen of Planet Earth and I send this message to any surviving Autobots and Heroes taking refuge among the stars. We are here. We are waiting. I'm waiting for you Optimus Prime I'm waiting for you." Jennifer said with great Wisdom and looked at Nikki Nikki was busy stargazing, the midnight sky perfect in her eyes as the stars twinkled in white. Holding up her shot glass, she seemed to hold it up in cheers to a particular star, smiling up at it as she drank.

And so the two transformer kids return for the night and waited for another adventure to come upon them.
